DISMISSES DR. DUMBA

Austrian Envoy Has Given Offense.

SENDS NOTE TO VIENNA

President Wilson Notifies Aus- tria of His Decision.

Washington, Sept. 10.—The United States has informed Austria-Hungary that Dr. Constantin Theodor Dumba, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador to this country, is no longer acceptable as that government's envoy at this capital. The demand for the ambassador's recall is based upon his admission that he attempted to disrupt industries in the United States.

The action taken in Dr. Dumba's case amounts to a notice to Germany, as well as to Austria-Hungary, that this government will no longer tolerate activities by aliens calculated to embarrass the United States in its relations with belligerent powers of Europe.

In deciding to request Austria-Hungary to recall Ambassador Dumba, President Wilson and Secretary Lansing fully realize the possible consequences of the act. The impression is quite general that, soon after the receipt of the note in which the Vienna government is advised that Dr. Dumba must be withdrawn from the United States, Austria-Hungary will take like action in the case of Frederic C. Penfield, the American ambassador to Austria-Hungary.

Berlin May Take Offense.

Officials here appear to be confident that the dismissal of Dr. Dumba means the complete severance of diplomatic relations between the United States and Austria-Hungary. That it may lead to serious difficulties with Germany is one of the possibilities of the situation.

The note addressed to the Vienna government requesting the withdrawal of Ambassador Dumba from the United States is short but to the point. It states bluntly that the ambassador proposed to his government plans to bring about strikes in American manufacturing plants engaged in the production of munitions of war. The note states further that the offense is aggravated by the fact that the ambassador used as a courier for the transmission of a report bearing on plans an American, traveling under the protection of an American passport. It goes on to say that inasmuch as Dr. Dumba "conspired to cripple legitimate industry in the United States," his presence is no longer acceptable here in a diplomatic capacity.

Hope is expressed that friendly relations will continue to obtain between the imperial and royal government of Austria-Hungary and the United States.

Ambassador Penfield at Vienna was instructed by cable to deliver the following note to the foreign office:

Text of American Note.

"Mr. Constantin Dumba, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador at Washington, has admitted that he proposed to his government plans to instigate strikes in American manufacturing plants engaged in the production of munitions of war.

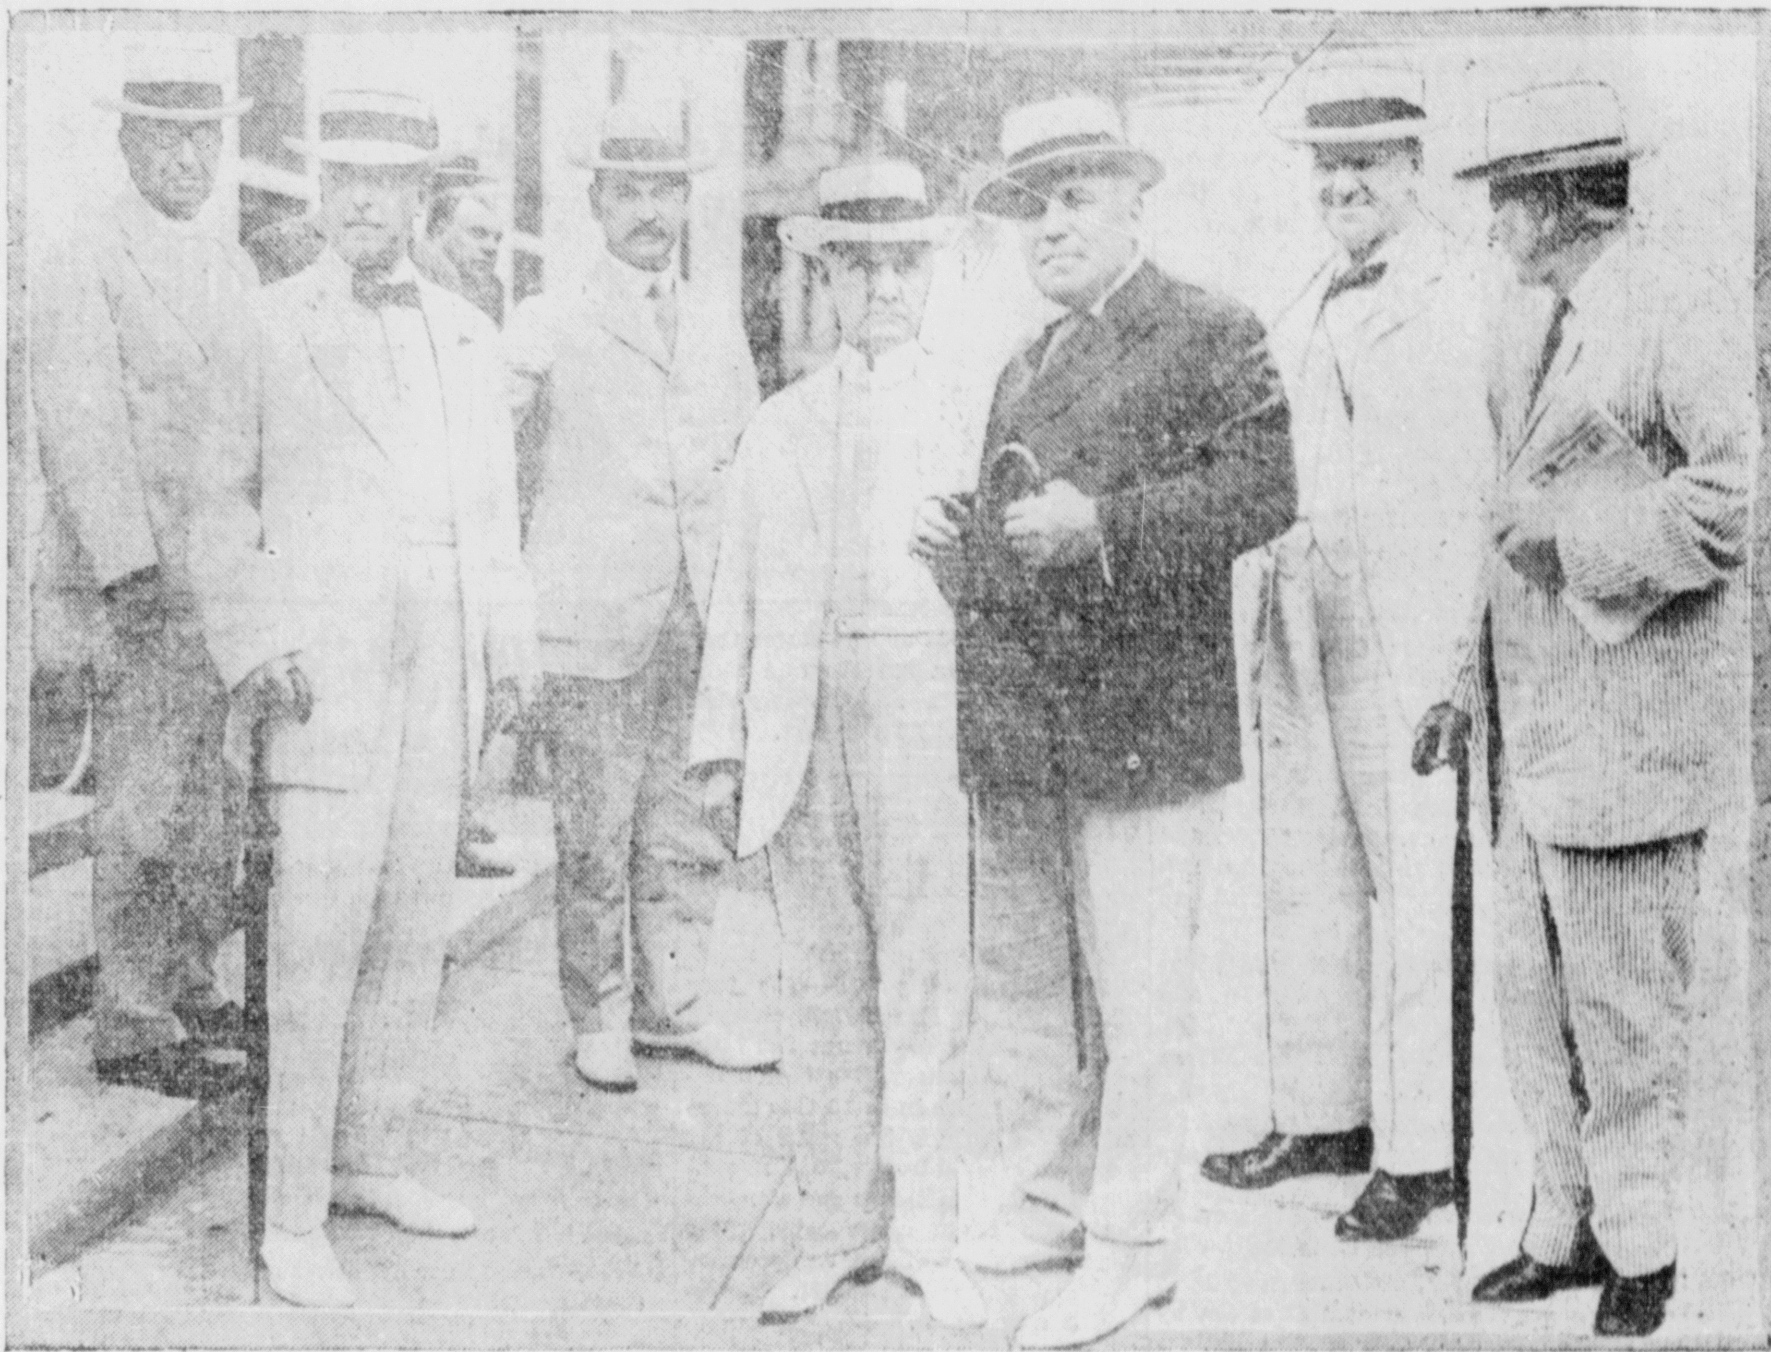

"The information reached this government through a copy of a letter of the ambassador to his government. The bearer was an American citizen named Archibald, who was traveling under an American passport. The ambassador has admitted that he employed Archibald to bear official dispatches from him to his government.

"By reason of the admitted purpose and intent of Mr. Dumba to conspire to cripple legitimate industries of the people of the United States and to interrupt their legitimate trade, and by reason of the flagrant violation of diplomatic propriety in employing an American citizen, protected by an American passport, as a secret bearer of official dispatches through the lines of the enemy of Austria-Hungary, the president directs me to inform your excellency that Mr. Dumba is no longer acceptable to the government of the United States as the ambassador of his imperial majesty at Washington.

Requests Recall of Envoy.

"Believing that the imperial and royal government will realize that the government of the United States has no alternative but to request the recall of Mr. Dumba on account of his improper conduct the government of the United States expresses its deep regret that this course has become

Cabinet Dresses in White to Consider Last Note to Germany

Left to right—Lindley M. Garrison, Secretary of War; Robert Lansing, Secretary of State; David F. Houston, Secretary of Agriculture; Thomas W. Gregory, Attorney-General; Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior; Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy; Albert S. Bursleson, Postmaster-General.

At the last meeting of the cabinet, that at which the final draft of the note to Germany on the case of the Lusitania and the use of German submarines, which was considered by some persons one of the most momentous meetings of the presidential advisers in many years, seven members dressed in white. They are shown here. Secretary Lane so far broke the rule as to wear a blue wool coat.

It was at this meeting that the note drawn by the president and his secretary of state, was gone over and approved. The note was received Friday, July 23, by Ambassador Gerard, and at once taken to Foreign Minister von Jagow.

It is not every one in Washington nor in the cities of the United States where the heat is sometimes almost insufferable who has the courage to

necessary and assures the imperial and royal government that it sincerely desires to continue the cordial and friendly relations which exist between the United States and Austria-Hungary.

The promptness with which the United States has acted in the Dumba case is taken to mean that this government will bring to an end certain operations that have been furthered by diplomats from other countries. The president and his secretary of state apparently have lost patience with diplomats who have engaged in various activities that have excited unrest in this country and might, if permitted to continue, provoke troubles menacing to domestic peace.

The president lost no time in reaching a decision in the Dumba case. The first news that James J. Archibald had been arrested in London and that incriminating documents had been found on his person was printed in a London dispatch on Sept. 2. Dispatches from London printed on Sept. 5 carried the substance of Dr. Dumba's letter. On Sept. 6 Ambassador Dumba wired Secretary of State Lansing from Lenox asking for an opportunity to make a verbal explanation. He was received on Tuesday, Sept. 7, and his requested recall is the result. His explanation failed to convince

NEW CRISIS HAS BEEN REACHED AMERICA AND TWO ALLIED POWERS

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 10.—A new crisis in the relations of America and the two great allied powers of Austria and Germany has been reached. The issues are:

First—The demand upon Austria for Ambassador Dumba's recall.
Second—Germany's unsatisfactory and disappointing act in the Arabic incident.

The officials admit that the two are linked, and do not believe that Germany will do otherwise than stand by Austria. An open break with Austria and the retirement of Ambassador Penfield from Vienna is feared. This would mean the severance of diplomatic relations. If Austria refuses to recall Ambassador Dumba this country will hand him his passports. It is believed on account of past experiences that Austria will certainly refuse to withdraw Ambassador Dumba.

REFUSAL WOULD BE UNPRECEDENTED

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 10.—Secretary Lansing says Austria's refusal to accede to the United States demands would be unprecedented. It is admitted the request may open the question as to whether Austria has the right to withdraw her citizens from munition manufacturers, but the very fact that the request has been made for the withdrawal of Ambassador Dumba assured his leaving.

ZEPPELINS KILLED 37

(By United Press)

London, Sept. 10.—Thirty-seven persons were killed by Zeppelins on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, four being wounded in Tuesday night's raid, the four recorded as missing having been found. Several victims of Wednesday night's raid are in a critical condition and it is believed additional deaths will put the fatalities over forty.

GERMANS ATTACK FRENCH

Paris, Sept. 10.—An official telegram says that with rifle fire, gas bombs and heavy artillery, the Germans are violently attacking the French positions at Alsace and Vosges.

RUSSIAN VICTORIES DENIED

(By United Press)

Berlin, Sept. 10.—An official report says the Russian claims of important victories in the south and east following the Czar's assumption of leadership of the Slav armies is emphatically denied. It is said that on Tuesday the Russians concentrated in the vicinity of Turnopol, attempting a counter-attack to check the German advance, and by furious attacks on Tuesday managed to bend back the German center slightly but all the lost ground was regained by the Germans on Wednesday, and the Russians forced further back. The statement says the czar is attempting to deceive his own people and suppress a growing feeling of revolt. The important victory of Turnopol is in the same class as the recent Russian naval victory at Riga.

Passports Ready for Ambassador Dumba

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 10.—Secretary Lansing said the United States was prepared to wait a reasonable length of time, and it is evident the United States has the passports ready to hand Ambassador Dumba in case Austria fails to answer the demand made.

Arabic Did Not Attempt to Ram

(By United Press)

Liverpool, Sept. 10.—On account of the statements in the German note to the United States, the White Star officials reiterated their previous denials of the German reports that the Arabic attempted to ram the submarine and the submarine sank her. None of the Arabic's officers or passengers saw the submarine, hence it was impossible to ram her.

Cleveland, Sept. 10.—Cleveland and Canton capitalists closed a contract for $80,000,000 to supply Russia with 3,000,000 rifles. Final details of the contract were completed in New York.

MRS. MARY L. TUCKER.

Favors the Establishment of War Camps for Women.

Washington, Sept. 10.—War camps for women, modeled after the one for business men at Plattsburg, N. Y., are being advocated by Mrs. Mary Logan Tucker, daughter of the late General John A. Logan.

"Some central location should be selected," Mrs. Tucker says. "The woman's section of the Navy league could take charge. Instruction should be given in first aid, signalling, making bandages and other war supplies and even small arms practice."

Mrs. Tucker and her mother, Mrs. John A. Logan, will present the plan to the Navy league and request its backing.

MAY PROSECUTE ARCHIBALD

Department of Justice Is Busy Studying Law.

Washington, Sept. 10.—Definite information was obtained that the department of justice has begun an examination of evidence relating to Captain James F. Archibald, the American correspondent who sought secretly to convey messages from the Austrian ambassador to his government, with the view of applying provisions of the penal code to this case.

Officials of the justice and state departments are taking intense interest in this inquiry because of resentment felt at embarrassment brought on this government by Archibald's act. The impression exists here that if proper means are found to punish Archibald the department of justice will be prompt to act.

LINE BRISTLES WITH SOLDIERS

American Troops Are Guarding Mexican Border.

EXTENDS ONE HUNDRED MILES

Cavalry and Infantry Are Patrolling Vast Front in Order to Prevent Mexican Raiders and Outlaws From Crossing the Rio Grande and Committing Depredations.

Brownsville, Tex., Aug. 10.—Caranza troops are entrenched at the Progresso crossing of the Rio Grande, about thirty miles above Brownsville.

They shouted across the river to American soldiers at that point that they would not fire upon American troops.

They also announced, however, that they would reserve the right to fire upon any ranks, deputies or civilians who appeared on the American bank of the river.

The lower Rio Grande valley bristles with troops, disposed along two lines in a manner giving substantial promise of peace from the bandits and absolute protection against serious incursions from the Mexican side.

From the river's mouth for a distance of a hundred miles up stream there is a line of cavalry patrols riding river bank and roads.

Behind the cavalry, a few miles inland, is a line of infantry posts held in reserve, forming a great letter V.

WILL AID IN RECRUITING

British Trades Unionists Applaud David Lloyd-George.

Bristol, Eng., Sept. 10.—Amid uproarious applause David Lloyd-George, the British minister of munitions, addressed a packed hall of trade unionists here, striking the keynote of his speech with the declaration that the war had resolved itself into a conflict between the mechanics in the contending nations.

"With you," the minister said, "victory is assured. Without you, our cause is lost."

"I come here as the greatest employer of labor in this country. You passed resolutions pledging yourselves to assist the government in a successful prosecution of the war, and I am here in behalf of the government to take you at your word."

The Trades Union congress by resolution approved the action of the parliamentary labor party by co-operating with the other political parties in the national recruiting campaign.

THROATS OF BOTH ARE CUT

Negro Kills Negress and Then Attempts Suicide.

St. Paul, Sept. 10.—Emma H. Butler, forty-five years old, colored, known as Big Em Hicks, former resort keeper, is dead, with her throat slashed and three bullet wounds in her body, and Jim Fleming, forty-year-old negro, who confessed to the crime, is in the city hospital with his throat cut and a bullet wound in his abdomen.

The murder and attempted suicide took place in Fleming's home following a quarrel.

When the police arrived at the house they found the woman dead. Five shots from a revolver had been fired at her. One entered her right breast, another the left hip and a third wound was found on her back.

It is thought none of the bullet wounds would have been mortal and that death was caused by the razor slash, which severed the arteries in her neck.

(By United Press)
London, Sept. 10.—George Lansbury, an English labor leader, in answering the question, "What is the matter with the laboring men of England?" said: "The workingmen are striking because they believe patriotism is being exploited. HEAVY GUNS SAVE TEUTONS
Slav Infantry Unable to Face Superior Artillery.
Petrograd, Sept. 10.—The brilliant victory won by the Russian army near Harnopol is regarded here in the nature of a fitting celebration of the assumption of chief command of the Russian armies by Emperor Nicholas and as an omen of success to come.
Great importance is attached to the victory by military circles, which point out that the Germans had collected a force of Prussian guards and Austrian brigades, strengthened by both light and heavy artillery, on a twenty-mile front for the undoubted purpose of breaking through into the rich grain provinces of Southwestern Russia.
With inferior forces the Russians were able to defeat the plan, inflicting severe losses and "shattering," it is claimed, an entire army corps.
The fact that the Russians could not follow up the victory at Tarnopol was due to the superiority of the Teutonic artillery.

HINGES ON LINER'S COURSE

LONG CAREER AS DIPLOMAT
Dr. Dumba Has Been Thirty-four Years in the Service.
Washington, Sept. 10.—Diplomats in close touch with the Austro-Hungarian embassy declare that there is little room for doubt that Dr. Dumba will be recalled immediately on receipt of Secretary Lansing's request. Baron von Swiedonek, counselor, probably would be made charge d'affaires to remain as head of the embassy until the end of the war.
Dumba presented his credentials immediately after the inauguration of President Wilson, succeeding Baron Hengelmuller, then dean of the diplomatic corps.
Thirty-four years in the diplomatic service, including posts in London, St. Petersburg, at the Quirinal, Bucharest, Paris, Serbia and Sweden rounded out his career, which, if it had not been for the present difficulty, probably would have closed here with retirement at the end of the war.

ALL INFORMATION AT HAND
Officials Will Carefully Consider the Arabic Case.
Washington, Sept. 10.—With all available information concerning the sinking of the Arabic at hand President Wilson and Secretary Lansing now are in a position to consider the course to be pursued by the United States.
In connection with the German explanation they will give consideration to the assurances given since the Arabic incident that German submarine commanders are under instructions to destroy no more liners without warning.
The sufficiency of the German excuse for attacking the Arabic is believed to hinge in some degree upon the movements of the liner just before the explosion.

Secretary Lansing Requested to Aid in Securing Supplies.
Washington, Sept. 10.—A committee to representing the Master Dyers' association of Philadelphia, headed by D. F. Waters, president, called on Secretary Lansing and asked assistance to relieve the dyestuff situation in the United States.
They declared no new practical methods have been developed for the manufacture of dyestuffs, that supplies of large manufacturers in Philadelphia are about exhausted and that the situation can be relieved only by releasing dyes now detained in German ports.

REPORT ON THE CITY BOOKS

Deputy Public Examiner J. O. Cederberg Covered Six Months Period to Apr. 30, 1915

THE RECOMMENDATIONS MADE New System of Bookkeeping—Various Ledgers to be Kept—The Monthly Reports

Deputy Public Examiner J. O. Cederberg's report on the books of the city of Brainerd covers a period of six months from November 1, 1914, to April 30, 1915. It was made upon the request of the city council for the purpose of installing a new system of bookkeeping.

In his report Mr. Cederberg says:

Preliminary
In order to ascertain the correct balances, I have made a thorough examination of the clerk's and treasurer's books and records for the period and found the balances as stated in the first column of Exhibit A. The bank balances were checked with the bank's statements and found correct.

System of Bookkeeping
The object of the new system submitted to the City Clerk is to make it possible for the city finance committee to check the different statements with the city clerk's report in less than two hours and to get a clear knowledge, in that time, of the standing of the city's finances.

The general ledger is kept for the purpose of facilitating the making of a balance sheet by means of which the total assets may be weighed against the total liabilities.

The assessment ledger is kept for the purpose of keeping account with all the improvements, where the city acts as agent for the property holders, in financing the improvements.

The budget ledger should be kept for the purpose of preventing expenditures in excess of the appropriations and for facilitating the making of a statistical report at the end of each fiscal year.

As the city clerk has a perfect knowledge of what should be included in a statistical report, it is not necessary to cover that subject.

The general ledger entries are based upon actions taken by the city council and upon reports from the different departments and records kept by the city clerk, journaled to the proper accounts in the ledger.

I have handed to the city clerk a journal and a general ledger, wherein I have made all the entries for the month of May. I have also made a complete trial balance of the general ledger account for the same month and recommend that the same form be adopted for future use.

There are two accounts in the general ledger which I suggest may be omitted, namely, the poor fund and the gravel account.

The balance in the poor fund should be transferred to the current expense fund and the poor fund account kept in the budget ledger.

The gravel account should be treated as an inventory item under the control of the city engineer or street commissioner.

City Clerk
The following departments should make monthly reports to the city clerk not later than the last week-day of the month for which the report is made:

City treasurer.
Water & Light board.
Park board.
Library board.
City Engineer.
Street Commissioner.

As the city clerk is also secretary of the sinking fund commission, no separate report from that body is needed.

The city clerk should have no account in the general ledger. All money received by him shall be paid over to the city treasurer in time to be included in the treasurer's monthly report.

I recommend that the city council by resolution cancel all the balances in the city clerk's ledger for the date of April 30, 1915, and adopt new balances as shown by my trial balance, and further action by the council after ascertaining the amount of a correct inventory as of date May 1, 1915, and also of the correct amount of outstanding assessments for local improvements.

I would recommend that the city council make an agreement with the county auditor about the furnishing by him of a correct statement of all assessments filed after January 1, 1909, not paid when the March settlement for this year was made.

After receiving such statement I will give the city clerk the true balances for each improvement, to be entered in the assessment ledger.

With the exception of the following accounts, for which balances are to be filed after further investigation, namely:

Assessments receivable, Permanent improvement.

KILLED AT MINE NEAR CROSBY

Special by Telephone:

Crosby, Minn., Sept. 9.—Budaovich, age 24, was almost instantly killed at the Mahanomen mine at 11 o'clock this morning when he fell beneath the wheels of a sand train on the dump and was run over by six cars before the train was brought to a stop.

Bovich's only known relative in this country is a brother, Fred Bovich, living in Duluth.

Bovich was a member of an Austrian lodge. Funeral services will be conducted by the lodge. His body will be buried here.

Assessment receivable, Sewers.
Tax levies.
Uncollected taxes.
Capital assets.
Capital Surplus.

all others in the city clerk's trial balance sheet are based upon the treasurer's balances and I recommend that the city council adopt the same as correct.

City Treasurer

The city treasurer is not requested to keep any other accounts than his bank accounts and the fund account now kept by him. In the latter accounts it is sufficient to make the entries at the end of each month from his report to the city clerk.

The treasurer should keep no separate account for the sewers. All balances in the sewer accounts now kept by him should be transferred to one single account, called sewer construction, which will serve the same purpose in regard to sewer improvements as the permanent improvement revolving fund is serving in regard to all other local improvements.

The treasurer should open an account called sewer warrants interest account, to which should be credited interest and penalties received on sewer assessments and charged with all interest coupons paid on sewer warrants.

I have delivered to the city treasurer a form for monthly report to the city clerk which I suggest be adopted by the city council. On the reverse side of same report should be given an itemized statement of all money received by the treasurer during the month.

Triplicate carbon copy receipts should be used by the treasurer, one copy to be given to the party making payments, one to the city clerk, and one retained by the treasurer.

Other Departments

In regard to the other city departments, I would refer to my report of Dec. 16, 1914.

The city engineer and street commission should give monthly reports in detail of work done, so as to enable the city clerk to make proper entries of the cost of city improvements and repairs and also to charge to each local improvement its proper share of material, work and time advanced by the city.

Form for entries in Local Improvements Accounts

1. When Sewer bonds are sold Treasurer is charged with the amount $100.00 and Sewer Construction credited $100.00
2. At the same time, Capital Surplus is charged $100.00 and Sewer Bonds credited $100.00
3. Payments for sewer construction work is charged to Sewer Construction account, and warrants issued are credited to City Warrants account together with other city warrants at the end of the month.
4. When the improvement is completed, and the assessment roll is delivered to the county auditor, Assessments Receivable, Sewers, is charged and Capital Surplus is credited.
5. When the county auditor makes settlements, the Treasurer is charged and Assessments Receivable, Sewers credited for the amount paid on the assessment, exclusive of interest and penalties.
6. At the same time the Treasurer is charged for interest and penalties and Sewer Warrant Interest Account credited.
7. When sewer bonds are paid Sewer Bonds is charged and City Warrant Account credited.
8. The same with interest on sewer bonds, interest account will be charged for the amount paid when the entries have gone through the regular warrant register.

Note: At the end of the month the City Warrant account is charged and the City Treasurer credited for all warrants returned by the treasurer, as shown by the sample ledger and sample journal.

Respectfully submitted,
J. O. CEDERBERG,
Deputy Public Examiner.

GROWS LARGE CROPS WITHOUT FERTILIZER

National New Farming Association Has an Educational Exhibit for Agriculturists at Fair

COL. FREEMAN THORP LECTURES

Educational Exhibit of Peculiar Interest to Progressive Farmers, Says Pioneer-Press

St. Paul Pioneer-Press—Among the educational exhibits at the State Fair of peculiar interest to the progressive farmer is a collection of grains grown on a demonstration farm of 100 acres in Crow Wing county by the National New Farming association.

Colonel Freeman Thorp of Hubert, Minn., is in charge of the exhibit. The association owns a tract of 1,500 acres, 1,000 of which is timbered.

The system of cultivation advocated by the association prevents drainage from cultivated land of valuable phosphates and other substances, thereby making it unnecessary to use fertilizers.

Colonel Thorp has been interested in the system forty-three years, since President Grant authorized the construction for him of a laboratory on the roof of the capitol at Washington to pursue his experiments.

"The system is simple," said Colonel Thorp yesterday. "We are raising 100 bushels of corn on every acre of the tract under cultivation. The soil is the sandiest in Minnesota. By following our directions in plowing and harrowing the land any farmer can do the same with the ordinary farm implements.

"Proper corrugation and banking the land will retain the valuable deposits necessary to the growth of crops, and corn planted by our method of preparing the land will not be affected by drought."

Information from the state fair is that Col. Thorp has his exhibition of corn and corn production installed and is delivering twice a day a convincing talk on new farming methods in front of his exhibit. On Wednesday a man from the Department of Agriculture attempted to refute his arguments but soon abandoned the attempt, though the Colonel urged him to stay and keep on. The department man sneered at the small amount of fertilizing material that could be saved by preventing the run off of the rain from the surface, saying that an expert of the department had analyzed the water that runs off from the surface and found it only contained one per cent of chemical fertilizer. Then the department man left while the Colonel showed the crowd that as the experiment was made near Washington, where there is 50 inches of rainfall, that one per cent would give one-half inch of chemical fertilizer over the whole surface of the acre that it would cost $50 an acre to buy that much fertilizer that is now allowed to run to waste.

SAVE YOUR SEED CORN, MR. FARMER

Col. Freeman Thorp, of Hubert, Manager National New Farming Association Tract

GIVES OUT TIMELY INTERVIEW

How to Select Corn and Shock it so it Will Absorb Juices and be Ripe and Plump

Col. Freeman Thorp, of Hubert, manager of the National New Farming Association's demonstration tract and the greatest expert in corn production in the northwest, gives out this timely advice to corn growers:

"Save your own seed corn. If you pick your selected seed ears before they are dead ripe you will have shrunken kernels with high germinating percentage but lacking in vigor. Instead if your corn has reached roasting ear stage, when the next weather condition threatens frost, cut close to the ground or pull up selected stalks with big ears, shock them in large shocks, cutting enough ordinary corn right around each of such shocks to enclose the outside of the shock to protect your selected stalks from frost and prevent their rapid drying.

When you husk your seed ears a month later before freezing weather sets in, you will find the kernels have absorbed the juice of the whole stalk and are hard plump ripe corn. If you have no time to make any of the various kinds of racks for drying the ears, spread them on the floor in an upstairs room warmed by a stove pipe or, if there are mice in the house, put the ears in loose woven gunny sacks, two dozen ears to the sack and hang them by wire from the ceiling or rafters or put them on boards hung by wire. The essential is a place that is dry and does not freeze."

"Kilkenny"

"Kilkenny" is the title of Fiske O'Hara's new play in which he will be seen in this city at the Brainerd opera house on Wednesday evening, Sept. 15. The new play is by Augustus Pitou, Sr., author of Fiske O'Hara's last play, "Jack's Romance." Mr. Pitou has written a greater number of Irish plays than any other living author. In "Kilkenny" he has endeavored to depart somewhat in story and construction, from his former plays. He has selected Kilkenny for the locale of his play at the time, 1810, when it was the center of art, culture and fashion.

During the carnival season which took place yearly for two weeks in October, people came from all parts of Ireland to enjoy the festivities. In the early mornings many indulged in fox hunting, following the hounds in the bracing Irish air. After the hunt with good appetites, they breakfasted at the Hibernian hotel, the headquarters of the hunt club. In the afternoons, the butchers gave exhibitions of bull baiting. There were also archery contests, and in the evenings, performances at the theatre for charity by the amateur company composed of the ladies and gentlemen of the city.

In "Kilkenny" Mr. O'Hara will sing several new songs especially written for this play. Mr. O'Hara's supporting company will include Mabel Julie Scott, Marie Quinn, Mary Downs, Anna Nichols, Lisle Bloodgood, Eliza Mason, W. R. Morgan, J. P. Sullivan, James Edwards, Henry Duffy, J. E. Miller and W. T. Sheehan.

RUSSIA ON VERGE OF MOMENTOUS REFORM

By J. W. T. Mason, for United Press

Russia is on the verge of the most momentous reform in her history. The Teutonic victories are discrediting the bureaucrats who have guided Russia's destiny since the beginning of the war, and liberalism is now making its voice heard in tones that echo the imperative demands of the French revolution.

Czar Nicholas, temperamental and instinctively dramatic, may soon add to the vodka prohibition of last year political and social reforms of far more importance. For the first time since abortive revolution that followed the defeats of the Russo-Japanese war, the duma has become menacing. The reformers in the duma have united. This union gives the new party of all the progressives a numerical majority over the reactionaries.

The reactionaries are now trying to persuade the government to dissolve the duma. Professor Milukoff, the real leader of the progressives, has replied that if the duma is dissolved it will meet again in a few weeks. The threat is obvious. Professor Milukoff unquestionably has in mind the historic meeting of the French national assembly in the tennis court at Versailles, which was the first act of the French revolution. If the duma is prorogued, the czar may have to put down a civil revolution as well as oppose the Teutonic advance.

It is improbable the duma will be cast aside. The czar shows signs of sensing the danger that threatens him from within, and his faith in the bureaucracy that surrounds him must have been sadly weakened during the last four months. The Germans have long counted on a revolutionary outbreak in Russia to help them conquer the Slavs and compel Russia to make a separate and disastrous peace. The revolution is now at hand.

The czar, whose mysticism caused him to do the unexpected things at a moment's notice, has not retired to the background at the approach of the revolution. Instead, he has gone forward to meet it. He has assumed open and personal responsibility before his people. This may mean that reforms will be granted to Russia by the czar as a matter of right. If so, Russia will raise from her defeats more powerful than she could be in a battlefield victory. Western liberalism is knocking at Russia's door and the czar seems to be reaching forward to throw back the belts.
